

There's Something New Under the Sun, and Under the Star of David, too!

JCoSD is a cooperative-inspired synagogue community. We're here to provide opportunities for learning, support, action, and personal & spiritual fulfillment, using Judaism as an anchor and guide. We welcome everyone interested in contributing to our community.

The traditional model calls for synagogues to organize along demographic lines. JCo organizes along lines of interest and inspiration. If art is your thing, we want you to join our arts group; if meditation is what calls you, we want you to join our meditation group; and if you're inspired to create your own group, we want to help you to do that.

Many members organize around specific interest groups, which we call cohorts. Cohorts change and expand regularly. Our current cohorts follow the following themes:

- The Arts
- Prayer & Meditation
- Social Action & Israel
- Intellectual Pursuits
- Health & Healing
- Nature

How We Use Our Heart To Stand Out & Set Us Apart!

JCo is extremely active. We have activities and events on a regular basis. Please view the calendar on our website for upcoming events.

At JCo, we strive to have a community which is an extension of family. Life has a way of challenging us on so many levels. We do not need to feel alone. Our members initially connect with our clergy through intensive personal meetings called "One-on-Ones." These serve the purpose of helping members find their place as well as what they can offer. JCo values all members, young and old, and honors their individual gifts. We interact with each other through shared experiences.

We take the time to listen and react to the needs of our members. Our membership ethic is that all levels of engagement and contribution are deemed valuable. These are not just "words:" these are our guiding principles.

Our Clergy serve in supportive roles, providing spiritual and cultural guidance.

Our Members Have Choice... And a Clear Voice!

"I highly recommend having a One-on-One with Rabbi Josh & Cantor Gabi. You'll find something amazing that makes you feel special, comfortable, and heard."

Joanna S.

"JCoSD embraced our family from the start. Now we want to 'pay it forward.'"

Stephanie L.

"JCo is not a destination, it's a place that meets you where you are and helps you grow mentally and spiritually."

Dr. Brad S.

"Its not the 'What' that's important at JCo, it's the 'How.'"

Corey M.

"I get to pick the parts of my Torah portion that mean something to me. I can't wait for my Bat Mitzvah!"

Eliza L.
